“ To Sandras family-

My condolences to all. I feel blessed to have known Sandy even for a short time. We shared our happiness to have grandchildren and for her great grandchildren. We felt blessed. Sandy had a way to make me feel peaceful while we talked about life struggles and issues. She explained that my feelings about such were ok. We had serious talks and were able to laugh at the same time. We liked watching Katie and JB when they were younger explore their ages.
